

TYPES OF APPOINTMENTS – A&P

Regular Appointment (Permanent Status) – A continuing appointment or an original temporary appointment which may be followed by a continuing appointment. The appointment modifier is not included in the title.

Provisional – An appointment of a person not fully qualified, but who is expected to acquire such qualification in a period of time.

Acting – A limited time appointment that includes the assumption of additional or replacement duties.

Visiting – An appointment of a person having professional qualifications, when either the person or the position is not expected to be available for more than a limited period of time.

Emeritus - An honorary title which may be conferred at retirement in recognition of distinguished service.